See your electricity use and view or pay your bill from anywhere with the NEW Ambit Customer App. Download it at ambitapp.info/FAQ.

If either Ambit Surge Protection or AC/Heat Shield plans are sixty days past due, both will be cancelled. Partial bill payments may not be applied to the Home Services amount due. For billing questions, please contact Ambit Customer Care. Contact Allied Warranty at (866) 791-1200 or go online at www.alliedwarranty.com to make a claim or schedule a service request.

Why does my bill have prorated charges?

Your bill may have prorated charges if you have recently changed your rate plan, or if you are on a variable price plan, a rate change may occur during your billing cycle.

What is an Average Price?

Each month, your bill will show the average price you paid for electricity. The average amount is calculated by adding your energy charges plus any recurring monthly fees from either Ambit or your delivery provider and dividing by your total kilowatt hours (kWh) used that month.
